ELDAR RETURNS

[SEPTEMBER 28 & 29, 2007]

The first concert of the series will showcase the brilliant young pianist and Sony recording artist, Eldar. Now an international jazz phenomenon, the child prodigy who once made his home in Kansas City, has come a long way. Eldar's sheer velocity – not to mention virtuosity – on the keyboard is nothing short of astounding. A student of the style of Oscar Peterson, Eldar has studied the history and is now making his own!

HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS

[NOVEMBER 30 & DECEMBER 1, 2007]

The Kansas City Jazz Orchestra will get the holiday season into full swing performing holiday favorites "Big Band Style!" The magnificent, Millie Edwards will set your spirit soaring with her voice that mixes jazz, blues and gospel. Young LaShea Wright, who earned rave reviews for her performance at the Quality Hill Playhouse in 2006, will return home to take on holiday standards with the big band. American Idol may miss this one – but not The Kansas City Jazz Orchestra! Back by popular demand, there will be a special guest appearance by a Swingin' Old St. Nick.

HERD AGAIN!

[APRIL 25 & 26, 2008]

Woody Herman's Orchestras (often referred to as "Herds") were some of the most progressive big bands in jazz, never shying away from the latest trends. Apple Honey, Four Brothers, Fanfare for the Common Man, Early Autumn and Woodchopper's Ball are just a few of the classic Herman repertoire the KCJO will perform on this historical tribute to one of the greatest big bands ever!

Kathleen Holeman will join the orchestra on a few vocal pieces. You'll see why she is regarded as one of the hottest singers on the Kansas City scene!
